

Diplomats' Wives Here Attend Fete

Mrs. John Foster Dulles and Mrs. Sherman Adams were the ranking guests invited to yesterday's luncheon given by Mrs. Eugene Reitzke at her McLean residence, Beaufort.

The party was in honor of the wives of Far East and Southeast Asian Ambassadors who staged a benefit fashion show for International Red Cross last fall.

Due to illness and absence from town several of the wives were unable to be on hand but among those present were Begum Ali, wife of the Pakistani Ambassador; Mme. Notowidigdo, wife the Indonesian Ambassador; Mme. Tran Van Chuong, wife of the Ambassador of Viet Nam, and Mrs. Win, wife of the Burmese Ambassador.

Among other guests at the event were: Mrs. Harold H. Burton, Mrs. John Harlan, Mrs. Everett Dirksen, Mrs. Charles Cabell, Mrs. Daniel Bell, Mrs. Francis Hildebrand, Mrs. William Lee, Miss Frances Williams, Mrs. Winifred Hannagan and Mrs. Harry Britian Gilbert, mother of the hostess.

Embassy wives there were: Mme. Prabbha-Vivadhana of Thailand, Mrs. Munsiff of India, Mrs. De La Mare of Great Britain and Mrs. de Silva of Ceylon.
